

High School Assembly Script

People Needed: 2

Time Needed: 2 Minutes

Person 1 – Contestant

Person 2 – Spelling Judge

Setting – Spelling Bee Competition

Spelling Judge – And for the last round of the Food Allergy Spelling Bee – please spell the word Anaphylaxis.

Contestant – Anaphylaxis – Can I have a definition please?

Spelling Judge – A potentially life threatening allergic reaction

Contestant – Can you use it in a sentence?

Spelling Judge – A student allergic to peanuts accidentally ate peanut butter and suffered a reaction known as anaphylaxis.

Contestant – Okay....[deep breath] A-N-A-P-H-Y-L-A-X-I-S. Anaphylaxis!

Spelling Judge – Correct!

Contestant – Have you ever wanted to participate in a spelling bee? You are going to get your chance on _____ (date) when our school will be taking part in Food Allergy Canada's Allergy Awareness Challenge. Students in each grade will go head to head in fun competitions like a Food Allergy Spelling Bee and Food Allergy Jeopardy. You will even have the opportunity to find out what it's like to have an allergy as one challenge is to Adopt an Allergy for a Day.

Spelling Judge – Adopt an allergy! That will be tough! The three-day event will be a fun way to learn more about food allergies, which is a condition that affects many students at our school. Watch for posters and listen to announcement for more information soon. We hope to see you then!
